	29-8-2003 Smt. Meena Shastri, counsel for the petitioner. Heard. The petitioner's petition is that he was appointed in the Census Department as compiler on contract for specified duration. The work of the petitioner was satisfactory and he worked as compiler from 6-8-91 to 31-5-92. Moreover, the petitioner belongs to Other Backward Classes. Copy of the caste certificate is Annexure-P/3. The petitioner has been retrenched by the authority. The Govt. of Madhya Pradesh issued a circular from time to time to the effect that all the employees of the Census Department whose services have been terminated on account of the expiry of the term, they will be treated as surplus employees and they will be given priority in the matter of appointment on the similar posts. Copy of the circular is Annexure-P/6. The respondent No.1 has issued a letter dated 19-2-2001 stating that the employees of Census Department will be counted as surplus employees in Chhattisgarh State also and there will be no need of separate direction. Copy of the same is Annexure-P/7. The petitioner has made several representations before the competent authority reiterating all the above contents but it has no effect. Copy of the last representation is Annexure-P/10. It is,
